20th Century Third World Women Writers, Black American and African: Selected Bibliography

Black American Women

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

Comedy, American Style. New York: Frederick A. Stokes Co., 1933.

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

There is Confusion. New York: Boni & Liveright, 1924.

__________________________

__________________________

"Black Poems, Poseurs, and Power." Negro Digest, 18 (June 1969), 30-34.

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

Seraph on the Suwanee. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1948

"For Beautiful Mary Brown." Freedomways, 11 (Second Quarter, 1971).

191. Short Story.

Shange, Ntazake. For Colored Girls who have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow is Enuf. New York: Macmillan, 1977.

_____ Sassafras, Cypress

African Women

Ghana

"Last of the Proud Ones." Okyeame 2, no 1 (1964), pp. 9-10.

"New Life at Kyerfaso." In An African Treasury, pp. 112-17.

Kenya

Mozambique

Nigeria

___________. This Is Lagos and Other Stories. Enugu, Nigeria: Nwankwolejika, 1971.

Sierra Leone

South Africa

Uganda

Zambia

-compiled by Nellie McKay

1/83