

Registration for Amateur Journalism Conference 2016 Thursday, July 21 – Saturday, July 23

The Conference is being held to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the purchase of the Library of Amateur Journalism (LAJ) by The Fossils ("the historians of amateur journalism") and to highlight the efforts of UW-Madison in preserving and cataloging the collection since it was gifted in 2004. The National Amateur Press Association (NAPA) will hold its national convention in conjunction with the Conference, and the American Amateur Press Association (AAPA) has designated it as a regional gathering.
